

Questionnaire

	Yes	No	Don't know
They made the topic relevant to their audience.
They expressed their ideas clearly and simply.
They showed their sincerity and passion for the subject.
They used their hands and gestures well.
They used eye contact well to connect to the audience.
They used a range of expressions to add drama and humour.
The talk was clearly structured.
They used pauses to give the audience time to think.
They used slides and visuals well to reinforce their message.			